CHOOSE ONE CATEGORY FOR YOUR NOMINEE

COMMUNITY LEADER AWARD

This award recognizes recipients who spark change by engaging others in improving the entire Rochester community.

Nominees are volunteer leaders who :

- Are dedicated and determined to see conditions improve in the city's neighborhoods.
- Have a history of Block Club or Neighborhood Association involvement.
- Are able to motivate others to create change.
- Have made an outstanding contribution to the Rochester Community.
- Work at finding a solutions to improve the social, financial or physical health of fellow residents.
- Serve as an example of what each of us can do for our community.
- Have a fervor for fostering change and revitalizing Rochester.
- Have invested their energies and talents to bring about specific change that positively impacts their neighborhoods and communities.

COMMUNITY CHAMPION AWARD

This award encourages recipients and challenges others to continue the creation of special projects, no matter how big or small, that contribute to their neighborhood. There will be one award from each City Quad (Northeast, Northwest, Southeast, Southwest) Nominees are volunteers, who as neighborhood residents:

- Exemplify a vision for a better, brighter Rochester.
- Uplift other people.
- As a volunteer, work to better their neighborhood.
- Demonstrate spirit and a commitment to finding a better way to build a community.
- Are excited about doing his/her part regardless of whether there is recognition or not.
- Are just as eager to make a difference for one person or for many.
- Are continuously creating a positive environment, making Rochester a great place to live, work and play.

All submissions must be received by March 29th.

Winners and nominators will be notified immediately following selection and should plan on attending the event on June 4th. Nominees that are not selected for awards won't be notified, but are welcome to attend the free event. We welcome all nominees, even if they've been nominated in previous years.
